Passionate about mentoring, stakeholder alignment, and building data products that deliver measurable impact.

EXPERIENCE

Product Lead — Data & Analytics

06/2025 – Present

Boehringer Ingelheim · Barcelona

- Lead the Omnichannel Insights Squad, managing a team of data professionals delivering analytics solutions, dashboard migrations, and data products across global markets.
- Drive a large-scale migration of 20+ dashboards to a new enterprise data platform, coordinating UAT processes and enforcing KPI tolerance thresholds to ensure data integrity.
- Establish and govern KPI documentation standards using data catalog tooling, creating reusable templates for definitions, business rules, and calculation methodologies.
- Align cross-functional stakeholders — from commercial to medical teams — around standardized analytics practices and shared data product roadmaps.

Global BI Analyst

01/2023 – 05/2025

Roche · Barcelona

- Built a structured onboarding program for junior analysts, boosting productivity and cutting ramp-up time by 30%.
- Automated Salesforce-based reporting for the global Service Division, reducing manual effort from one week to half a day.
- Led the design and rollout of Tableau dashboards enabling data-driven decisions across the global service organization.
- Presented new Global Service KPIs to senior executives, improving performance tracking and strategic alignment.

Gaming Data Analyst

05/2022 – 10/2022

Voodoo · Barcelona

- Designed A/B testing frameworks with product teams and presented results to executives, guiding feature and monetization strategy.
- Developed scalable data models with dbt and built Tableau dashboards to track gaming performance and financial metrics.

BI Analyst

10/2021 – 04/2022

Google · Dublin

- Built scalable data solutions for AdMob game monetization clients, analyzing impressions, ad revenue, and ROAS.
- Created Looker dashboards and complex SQL integrations to deliver actionable insights for business partners.

Financial Analyst

07/2020 – 09/2021

European Central Bank · Frankfurt

- Reconciled the ECB balance sheet by consolidating data from all Eurozone national central banks.
- Led the adoption of RPA tooling across the institution, presenting use cases and demonstrating efficiency gains.

Growth Analyst

07/2019 – 06/2020

Emma · Frankfurt

- Optimized marketing campaigns through data analysis and automated reporting with Python and PowerBI dashboards.
